“ Mr. Baynard was a very special friend during the years Norman and I lived in Trappe. He was the first person I met when we moved to the Eastern Shore, and the most loyal. He had such a colorful personality, and we always had a few good laughs whenever we were together. We have numerous hilarious ornery quotes of his which have become part of our family lore. He was hard working. He loved his family dearly. And of course, his dogs. We are thinking of Ramona and others who were such an important part of his life. He had a long and full life. We will miss him. Maureen Bowie
