

William Coleman

December 18, 2005

William "Mr. Bill" Coleman of Grasonville, MD passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, December 18, 2005 at Anne Arundel Medical Center, Annapolis, MD. He was 69.

Born on September 9, 1936 in Orangeburg, SC, he was the son of the late, Lois Ivy and Lonnie Coleman. Mr. Bill grew up in North and South Carolina. After receiving a Bachelor's of Science degree from Georgia Tech, he was recruited into the US Army during the Cuban Missile Crisis where he worked at the Pentagon. After being discharged, he established a computer consulting company in Virginia. Mr. Bill would later work again for the Federal Government but before retirement, he returned to the private sector and his consulting business. During the past five years, he was a permanent substitute teacher and administrator for CATS (Center for Applied Technology South) in Anne Arundel County. Mr. Bill was an avid golfer, intrepid fisherman and dedicated traveler.

In addition to his wife of twenty-eight years, Patricia, he is survived by a mother-in-law, Dorothy Wegener and a brother-in-law, Doug Wegener, both of Colorado.

Services will be held at a later date. Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Chester, MD.

The family suggests contributions be made to the Grasonville Volunteer Fire Dept., P.O. Box 457, Grasonville, MD 21638.
