“ He stopped by my yard sale back around 2010 or so and we chatted for about an hour which apparently he could out talk me! He had a lot of questions and told me the story of his life, his kids and marriages. I don't know how he got it all in in one hour but he did! When he found out I was Kurt Roser's daughter well then of course he came in the house! I showed him the painting my Mom did of his sheep. He had no idea it was hanging in my sons bedroom. My Mom took a photo of his sheep one morning as she sat sipping her coffee at the end of his lane. He was pretty tickled about this and had no idea they had made such a debut! Going to miss this icon! The sheep are now in Texas!

“ To The Family of Mr. Denny,

Mr. Denny was a household name. As a child I always heard my dad mention Mr. Denny. As I got older I remembered going home from school each day passing Mr. Denny's store.

My family are the Nickens. Joe Nick was my dad. We all as children knew Mr. Denny as we often referred to him as. A kind, gentle man always respectful of others. I remember him driving the school bus.

I had the privilege of being in class with his son Greg Denny. He followed in his fathers footsteps in many ways. One way in particular was becoming a school bus driver.

Families on Kent Island knew each other and were like a close net family. Families names like the Denny's, the Leggs, the Brown's etc were names the majority of people living on Kent Island knew. Mr. Denny made a good name for himself. He will be missed.

“ I met Mr Denny when i tried to rent one of his houses that is almost like a country cottage and I always would ride past and think how cute this house is many years ago and after numerous requests phone calls and pretty much bugging him every day because another person had been in line before me I had to wait for her to decline before I finally got into the house . Mr Denny as we all know was a man of his word and the handshake was better than a lease to him so thats what we did . He kept his word and so did I and 28 yrs later I still live and love this home. He called me his best horse in the race and Sugie ! Every month I hand delivered the rent check and (that took a while) I would hear another life story and I enjoyed all of them He would surely tell you something! He loved his family and grandchildren and would enjoy his time with them so much .

My memories of him are special to me and I will always remember him and I believe that he's truly at peace and reunited with family and friends and catching up on the news.

To Janet and all the family you have my sincere thoughts and prayers. 🙏❤️

God bless you all

Love Bonnie
