“ It's with a heavy heart that I write this. I didn't have the good fortune of personally knowing William Elliott Gerland Jr, but judging by his picture he was a handsome, proud and brave young man. His father, "Bill", and I grew up together, went to the same school, and later worked together, until I moved out of state. Over the many years we lost contact with one another which is regretful. Bill is without a doubt one of the finest people I have ever known in my 62 years. I was lucky to have a great friend like Bill and still, to this day have great memories. Knowing Bill the way I do, I know he was an incredible father and mentor to his son. They say the apple doesn't fall far from the tree - William was surely an incredible young man with a kind and giving heart. It rips my heart from my chest knowing the heart-wrenching sorrow my friend Bill and his family are going through.

Bill, with all my heart, I am sorry for your loss, “ Gerland was one of the best Jr Marines I had when I got out. I can remember him always being on the ball at the shop, and then hanging out listening to rock music like avenged sevenfold and just talking. I just found out about him today and will always love and miss my brother. Semper Fi.
