

William Randall Gerstmyer

April 15, 1954 - May 4, 2023

William Randall Gerstmyer, 69, of Easton, MD, died peacefully at home on May 4, 2023. Born April 15, 1954, in Baltimore, he graduated from Towson High School and attended the University of Maryland.

He owned a food processing publishing company with his wife of 46 years, Nancy Judge Gerstmyer, and father-in-law, Arthur I. Judge, II. The publication began by Art's great-great-grandfather in 1878. Randy ran the publishing company alongside his father-in-law and wife until his illness struck in January 2009 causing the close of the business.

He was very active at St. John's Episcopal Church in Butler, MD, serving on many committees and becoming a Senior Warden. Throughout the years, he loved being involved with his children's and grandchildren's sports games, trips to the beach, hiking in Colorado, snowmobiling in upstate NY, crab feasts with friends, and enjoying milkshakes with his grandkids. He also had a passion for wood working in his shop and enjoyed renovating and rehabilitating seven homes.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy; his son, Noah Morgan Gerstmyer and wife Lindsay Carter Gerstmyer, and their two daughters, Isabel Warren and Carrington Judge of Chestertown, MD; and his daughter, Emily Gerstmyer Uyttewaal and husband Jonathan Brady Uyttewaal and their two sons, Arthur

Josef and Henry Brady of Easton, MD.

The family is forever grateful for the many doctors and caregivers that have helped treat his brain cancer over the last 14 years.

In lieu of flowers, gifts in memory of William Randall Gerstmyer may be directed to Talbot Hospice with a memo indicating that this gift is in memory of William Randal Gerstmyer and mailed to Talbot Hospice at 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton, MD 21601.
