“ I'll always remember Uncle Willie asking me to play the piano when he'd visit us in NH. He loved to sing along. We'll miss his laughter and stories. Wish we could be there. Rest in peace Uncle Willie. Love to all.

“ I have good memories of uncle Willy from when I was just a little kid. My mother says she could always count on him. I interviewed him a few years ago for a class. He liked to tell stories, particularly one about putting the lights back on in NY. I really do appreciate uncle Willy and aunt Eleanor. I'm glad we got to go to his 90th a few years ago. Condolences to all the family, wish I could be there. Be well.
