

William Thomas "Tommy" Ireland

December 12, 1959 - April 19, 2024

William Thomas "Tommy" Ireland of Chestertown, MD passed away surrounded by his family after a long illness on April 19, 2024. He was 64 years old.

He was born in Chestertown, MD on December 12, 1959, the son of the late Charles and Mildred Ireland. He grew up in Fairlee, attending local schools before beginning his career as a brick mason, working with his father to learn the trade. He was a skilled mason working for South Delaware Masonry on many buildings throughout the area including the University of Delaware and Washington College. He was also a hairstylist for ten years and co-owned Primary Colours Hair Salon in Chestertown.

He loved sports and physical activity – he coached baseball, played basketball, and enjoyed weightlifting, as well as being an avid Yankees fan. His jokes were deep and he always made himself laugh. His personality and character will live on in his family forever. He also attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses for many years.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, David Ireland, and cousin, Chip Ireland.

He is survived by his children, Kelly Ireland (Jacob), Eric Ireland, and Julie Neukam; sisters, Carol Bailey and Bobbie Crew (Joe); brother, Jack Ireland (Penny); grandchildren, Stephen Neukam, Sarah Neukam, and Alexis Hall; as well as his beloved and faithful friend, Sharon Crew and her cat, Kennedy. Services will be held privately.

“ My heart rests with him and he was my youth. We had a lovely family as a result of our long 30 year relationship. He was an avid sports fanatic, crafted in many ways, he was my sidekick as we worked together and built a life that lasted past all the conflict. He will be in my memories, pictures, faces of our children, and in my heart forever. Rest Tommy. You had such a tough time. Love you always.
