“ Stuart Family, My sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. While I do not know you folks personally, I got to know Jim over the past six years as the family financial advisor with Folger Nolan Fleming Douglas. I also live just a bit south of you on route #8, Kent Island. He and I had many conversations, including those concerning loss of my wife on 11/20/12. I wish that you all did not have to hurt as you do. I know all about it, for Kay has been the love of my life since we met at sixteen years of age, 1957, in high school chemistry class. She will forever be the love of my life. I know that she was there to welcome Jim into God's eternal kingdom. Unfortunately, I will be out of town on the 17th and unable to attend his remembrance. However, I will be pleased to meet with Mrs Stuart when considered appropriate to take care of matters relating to his account with us and to assist Mrs Stuart and/or family in any way that I can. Such a meeting is easy on my end for I pass your home frequently most days of the week. God's blessings to all of you.

“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
