

William Hopkins Larrimore Jr.

March 22, 1935 - March 30, 2021

William Hopkins Larrimore, Jr., passed away suddenly in Georgetown, DE, on March 30, 2021. He was 86.

Born on a farm in Price, MD, on March 22, 1935, to William Hopkins Sr. and Mary Plummer Larrimore. He was raised on their farm in Church Hill, MD, and attended school in Church Hill and later graduated from Centreville High School in 1953. While there, he excelled in several sports, especially in baseball.

After graduation he enlisted in the Marine Corps, serving with the 2nd Marine Air Wing on the East Coast and then on to Korea and Japan. He was honorably discharged at the rank of Sergeant in 1957 and attended the University of Maryland.

He moved to Wilmington, DE, and met and married Betty Lou McCann. He began his career in sales and marketing with Keebler Biscuit Company. While working in the food business, he was promoted and transferred to Syracuse, NY. A few years later he decided to join the growing wine industry and was hired as Upstate Sales Manager for Dreyfus Ashby Importers. In 1976, at their annual Sales Convention, he was awarded the company's Man of the Year award for his accomplishments in upstate NY. In 1982, once again he was transferred to California as Western Regional Manager for Dreyfus Ashby

Importers.

Later in Agoura Hills, CA, he purchased a ServiceMaster franchise and built the business into a successful operation. Retiring in 1996, he and Betty moved to Aiken, SC. In 2004, they moved to Spruce Creek CC in Summerfield, FL. He was an avid golfer and enjoyed, not only the game, but memories and many friends he met along the way. He enjoyed following all sports, especially ice hockey, reading and also doing volunteer work. In 2013, they relocated to The Village of Cinderberry in Georgetown, DE.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Betty; son, Daniel; and son-in-law Howard Merritt of Fort Lauderdale, FL; his brother-in-law, M. Rogers Smith of Chestertown, MD; and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his sister, Bette L. Smith.

A service will be held on Wednesday, April 7, 2021, at noon at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 11 am. Burial will follow in Chesterfield Cemetery in Centreville, MD.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to: (checks payable to) Georgetown Junior Police Academy Fund 335 N. Race St. Georgetown, DE 19947, Grace United Methodist Church, Millsboro DE www.gracechurchmillsboro.com, or the charitable organization of your choice.
