

William Macindoe

January 9, 2008

William Macindoe died on Wednesday, January 9, 2008 at his home in Trappe.

Born July 22, 1937, he was the son of the late Robert and Josephine Hopkinson Macindoe of Glasgow, Scotland and Oxford, MD. He attended Oxford Elementary School and graduated from Easton High School in 1955. He was a long time congregant of the Church of The Holy Trinity in Oxford and a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Trappe.

In 1955 he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and was discharged with the rank of Petty Officer, 2nd Class. Following his military service he was a professional airline mechanic with Capital Airlines prior to his appointment to the Maryland State Police Academy in 1963.

During his career with the State Police he rose through the ranks and commanded barracks in Salisbury and Easton until his promotion to Captain in June 1981. At that time he was appointed commander of the Washington, D.C. Metro Troop and later commanded the Baltimore Metro Troop and the Eastern Shore Troop until his retirement from the Maryland State Police in July 1987.

An avid boater and ocean sailor, after retirement he became a licensed captain (100 ton) for the transfer of yachts along the entire East Coast of the U.S. and Caribbean. He was a member of the Tred Avon Yacht Club and the St. Andrews Society of the Eastern Shore.

Mr. Macindoe is survived by his wife of forty-two years, Beverly Harrison Macindoe; one son, William Neilson Macindoe and his wife Jean; and two granddaughters, Katherine and Anne Macindoe of Annapolis. He is also survived by two brothers, Robert Macindoe of Trappe and Colin N. Macindoe of Easton; and a sister, Mary Powell of Easton.

Private burial will be at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD.
