“ Our family has shared many milestones with "Pop" and Ceil over the year as our children and grandchildren have grown together. This brave Eastern Shore man will be sorely missed. Our love and prayers are with Ceil, Phil, Heather and family.

Crossing the Bar by Lord Alfred Tennyson (1889)

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems to sleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew out from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark,*

*For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*

Cel and family: Another icon has left us in the County, but his memories will always remain. We can still here that laugh and see his smile. Billy will be missed by many, but he is resting in peace now. Have hope in tomorrow, have faith in the everlasting and take comfort in the love of friends and family. Prayers and blessings are with you at this time. Gene and Lynda
