

William Tyler Fooks

February 6, 2003

William Tyler Fooks died on February 6, 2003, at his home in Centreville, MD. He was 38.

Mr. Fooks was born on November 23, 1964, in Easton, MD. He was the son of Barbara Edge Jonczak of Centreville and the late Thomas William Fooks. He attended Queen Anne's County High School and graduated Class of 1983. On May 28, 1993, he married Wendy Tinns of Grasonville, MD, and resided together in Grasonville. After being employed with a variety of landscaping companies, he began working for the State of Maryland as a grass cutter. Mr. Fooks enjoyed fishing, crabbing, cheering for the Redskins, and playing billiards.

In addition to his wife, Wendy, and mother, Barbara, he is survived by one son, Joseph "Joey" Fooks; two stepdaughters, Crystal Kracke and Heather Mitchell; one stepfather, Daniel J. Jonczak; two stepbrothers, Wayne Jonczak and Ronnie Edge; one stepsister, Michelle A. Jonczak; and one granddaughter, "little Annie" Mitchell.

Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday, February 11, 2003, at 2 pm at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD. Family and friends may call at the funeral home one-hour prior to services. Internment will be held in Chesterfield Cemetery.
