

William Cook White

March 9, 1924 - February 8, 2022

William Cook White of Centreville, MD, peacefully departed on February 8, 2022. He was 97 years old.

Born in Kent Island at White's Heritage on March 9, 1924, he was the son of Marmaduke Goodhand and Nellie Matilda Cook White.

In his younger years, he worked with his father on their farm and on the water. He then was employed with Maryland State Roads where he was a contributor in building and paving the Rt. 50 highway. He then pursued his dream to go back to his roots of working on the water and continued this profession for 50 years until retirement. William, known as "Captain Bill," spent his retirement days perfecting his hobby of carving handmade wooden boats as he did when he was young with his grandfather and from memory of various boats on the water. He also enjoyed building a variety of birdhouses for his yard and for his children.

William was a charter member of the Grasonville Church of God, Centreville Church of God, whom his wife, Betty had founded, and a member of the Centreville United Methodist Church.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Marmaduke G. and Nellie M. White; three brothers, Robert, John and Harold White; his beloved wife of 33 years,

Betty Ruth (Horney) White; and his second wife, Charlotte Ann (Collison) White. He was also blessed with 14 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, 4 great-great- grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

He is survived by five children, Ruth Ann Cecil (Gene), Sharon F. Palmatary (Harvey), Linda J. Cecil (Gary), Tanis L. Duckery, and William M. White (Reyna).

A viewing will be held on Friday, February 11, 2022 from 11 am to 12 noon at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD. Funeral services will begin at 12 noon. Graveside services will be private.
