

William J. White

November 15, 1934 - July 24, 2017

William John White died at 2:00am on July 24, 2017. He was dearly beloved by his family, friends, and colleagues.

While serving in the United States Navy under the VF-14 Tophatters squadron, he met his late wife, Josephine "Pina" Polizzi, and spent 45 years together. It was love at first sight, according to the happy couple; they were married six months later. Having lived in Italy for a short while with his new bride, Bill returned to the United States where he started a family and career with the Veterans Administration. His life was full of meaning and purpose, filled with love, family, and faith.

He was active in his faith at Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Annapolis, MD, where a memorial service will be held Monday, July 31, 2017, at 10:30 AM.

He is survived by his son, John Thomas White; granddaughter, Jessica Carmelina White; grandson, Charles John White; great-grandson, William Michael White; daughter-in-law, Karyn Bray White; granddaughter-in-law, Lilliana Santos White; granddaughter-in-law, Brittney Willis, and grandson-in-law, Simon Lee. He also leaves behind sister-in-law, Louisa Schubert; brother-in-law, Mike Schubert; and daughter-in-law, Gina White.

The family requests that any memorial contributions be sent to the American Stroke Association or The Sisters of Saint Joseph. (<http://www.strokeassociation.org> or <http://www.ssjphila.org>).
