

William Thomas Wolfrey III

April 14, 1941 - February 7, 2026

William Thomas Wolfrey, “Tom” of Chester, Maryland passed away peacefully on February 7, 2026. He was 84.

Tom was born in Washington, DC to Mary Sylvia (Stuart) Wolfrey and William Wolfrey, and was raised in Silver Spring, Maryland. Tom attended Montgomery Blair High School, followed by a BS degree in Business and Public Administration from American University, Washington, DC. This led to a career in public service that spanned several federal agencies, including the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland.

After retiring from government service, Tom embarked on a professional career in real estate as a Broker Associate. He specialized in property sales in Ocean City, Maryland; Fenwick Island and Bethany Beach, Delaware; and Orlando, Florida. Tom developed expertise in every aspect of real estate and soon earned recognition as a leading Real Estate Broker Associate.

He leaves behind his wife of 28 years, Catherine; his brother Stuart, his daughter, Susan; his stepson, Brian Savannah; as well as eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. In addition to his parents, Tom was preceded in death by his son, Stephen and his sister, Kathleen.

In honor of Tom’s life, we invite everyone who knew and loved him to join us for a celebration of life, details of which will be shared at a later date. While we mourn his passing, we also celebrate the beautiful life he lived and the countless memories he created.
