“ I can't comprehend just how sad you must feel
For the loss of someone you love.
This sorrowful time must still feel unreal
And you're looking for strength from above.
I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease,
That your spirit will gain strength again,
And I pray that your faith will create inner peace
And that God will send blessings--Amen.

Aunt Phyllis, Carrie, and Roger it has been years since we last saw or even spoke to one another. When I heard the news that he was sick I remembered the days in your pool, and the birds. Uncle Boise would hang out for a while but we could find him in his chair!! I will celebrate his homegoing rather than shed a tear for he has no more pain and suffering! If only we could be he FREE...

Deepest condolences,##imported-begin##QuinTora "Bootsy"

“ It doesn't seem real that your life was taken this quickly, but the fact that you were at peace with this gives some kind of comfort. I pray God has taken all your pain away and that you are sitting with Mommom, Poppop and Uncle Butch talking about the ol' days and smiling down on your family. Aunt Phyllis, Carrie and Roger know that you guys are in my thoughts and prayers and that you have peace in knowing that he is watching over you day and night, and that the love that you had when he was alive will live within you in his passing. Times like these are never easy but keeping him alive in your heart and in the memories that you shared will help you through the hard times. Just remember I am here if you need anything and that I am thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers. God Bless and I love you guys.##imported-begin##Jo Ann Cook##imported-end##
