“ We didn't know until we saw the obituary in the September 3rd Laurel Leader or we would have been at the funeral.

We're keeping you in our prayers at this difficult time. May God comfort you.

“ Cindy and Family, I offer my condolences for you at this great loss of husband, father. Bill was an important part of the Class of 1957, Laurel High School; we have suffered the loss of a very dear friend of many years. Our class is like a family and he was loved by us and we felt his love for us. Our memories of Bill will always include his great personality, his gentle ways and love of the natural world. Bill stood tall and his stories of woodland adventures are part of our class lore. We hope you will feel welcome at all future class gatherings. Please keep me informed of your e-mail address. If there is anything we can do for you; do not hesitate to call.
Love,
