

William H. Coleman

November 24, 2006

William H. "Bill" Coleman of Ingleside, Maryland died Friday, November 24, 2006 in his home. He was 64.

Mr. Coleman was born in Ridgley, Maryland the son of the late Charles A. "Brownie" Coleman and Annabelle S. Holden Coleman of Sudlersville, Maryland.

Mr. Coleman was a 1960 graduate of Sudlersville High School. He was a United States Army Vietnam era veteran, serving in Germany as a Huey Helicopter crew chief.

Mr. Coleman was a Power House Mechanic for the Dow Reichold Chemical Company in Cheswold, Delaware for 40 years, retiring in 2003.

Mr. Coleman married Betty Ann Clough on August 15, 1967 in Basle-City, Switzerland. He loved animals and animal rescue. Mr. Coleman enjoyed trucks, especially collecting them. In his spare time, he also enjoyed working on the family farm.

In addition to his wife and his mother, Mr. Coleman is survived by a sister, Loretta Walls and her husband Richard of Millington, Maryland, a brother, John P. Coleman and his wife Delieca also of Millington, Maryland and his beloved pet "Jewels".

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday November 28, 2006 at 2 p.m. in the Fellows Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 370 W. Cypress Street, Millington, Maryland. Friends and family may also call on Monday evening from 6-8 p.m. Interment will be in the Sudlersville Cemetery, Sudlersville, Maryland. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions in his memory to Animal Resource Foundation, P.O. Box 396, Chester, MD 21619.

Tribute Wall

“ William H. Coleman

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ William H. Coleman

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ William H. Coleman

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM