“ Maryanne, Chloe, Brittany. Thinking of you all during this time. I know how close all of you are and how difficult this is, but I also know how active Bill was and how hard he worked and how much he loved being outside. Being sick and in a bed was never part of his plan or lifestyle. I hope there will come a time soon when you think back and remember him strong, healthy and enjoying family and the kind of life he enjoyed most. Love to you all.##imported-begin##Brenda Spencer Burks##imported-end##

“ Chloe/BB/Mitzy/Maryann: Bill was one of our favorite clients [and friend] over the last 30 years. We discussed many things over the years regarding taxes, investments, insurance, lawyers, etc. Bill may not have agreed with everything or everyone, but he was always 'a man of his word'. We will miss him dearly.##imported-begin##Mike FLANAGAN##imported-end##

“ Dear Mitzi & family,
I am so sorry to hear of loss, I didnt know your Dad Mitzi, but he was a lucky man to have you as his daughter. I can never thank you enough for the care you gave my Dad during his chemo, while in the Bridges and Hospice. My Dad understood at the end that your Dad needed you. I know Dad loved you and appreciated everything you did for him. Our Dad's will both be missed, but their memories will live on through their families.
Take care and know my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
