“ Donna and Billy,
Please accept our deepest sympathy.
Your parents were great neighbors and we will never forget your Dad's delicious vegetable from his garden.
We very much would have liked to come to the viewing but we will be in Philadelphia for the next few days helping our son move into his new apartment. We ourselves are packing. Our house is sold and we are leaving for Florida December 17th.
Many fond memories remain of our time in Maryland.
With much affection to you and your families,
George and Irene Telepko
