

Winifred Jean Neill

April 17, 2002

Winifred J. Neill, most recently of Denton died at Shore Nursing & Rehabilitation on April 17, 2002. She was 74.

Born on September 4, 1927 in Rochester, New York she was the daughter of the late Joseph C. and Ruth E. Neill. She was educated in Rochester public schools and State University of New York at Brockport. Ms. Neill was an elementary school teacher in public schools of Monticello and Rochester, New York, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, Prince Georges County, Maryland and Nottingham, England. She also served as an educational therapist in Ardmore, PA. She was one of 50 U.S. public school teachers awarded a Model Teacher Exchange Fellowship in 1976-1977. In England that school year she attended a special course in Shakespeare as a Literary Figure at Stratford-on-Avon. Upon moving to the Eastern Shore later in life, she was the winner of the Caroline County Maryland You Are Beautiful award in 1989. Her piece extolled the beauty of Maryland from Prince Georges County to Caroline County. Her marriage, 1954-1974 to Bruce W. Brigham ended in divorce.

Ms. Neill is survived by a daughter, Beth Ellen Hanneman and her husband of Stevensville, MD; a son, Dana Allen Brigham and his wife of Columbia, MD; a brother, David Neill of Ocean City; six grandchildren; four step-grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held 1:00PM on Saturday, April 27, 2002 at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Chester.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, Eastern Shore Chapter 212 W. Main Street Suite 202C Salisbury, MD 21801.

Tribute Wall

“ Winifred Jean Neill

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Winifred Jean Neill

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Winifred Jean Neill

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM