

Yvonne Patricia McKinney

November 19, 1963 - December 17, 2022

Yvonne “Vonski” P. McKinney, departed this life on December 17, 2022, at the age of 59. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on November 19, 1963, the daughter of the late Carolyn Louise Wilson and Jerry “Jeff” McKinney.

Yvonne moved to Butlertown, Maryland, at an early age and attended schools in both Philadelphia and Kent County, Maryland. In later years she enlisted in Job Corp and earned her GED. She then became a certified nursing assistant and worked in nursing homes in Philadelphia and Kent County until her health began to fail. She eventually earned an Associate’s degree in Human Services from Purdue University Global.

Yvonne was a member of Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church, Worton, Maryland, under the leadership of the late Reverend James Chambers. She gave her life to Christ at an early age. In her youth, she discovered her talent for singing in the youth choir under the direction of the late Eliza Butler. She sang with “The Reflections” directed by Marlon Saunders. Yvonne also was a member of the “Celestial Choir” and later became the director of the youth choir. Yvonne was also a member of the recording artist group “The Relationship” in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. One of the affectionate solos she led was ‘My Soul Has Been Anchored in The Lord.’

Yvonne loved spending time with friends and family, especially her “Little Woo Woo”, her granddaughter. She was a great seamstress and jewelry maker. She also liked to crochet in her spare time. She enjoyed shopping, playing Spades, had a great talent for music, and doing hair as well.

In addition to her parents, Yvonne was preceded in death by one grandson, Chase Alexander McKinney; as well as all her aunts and uncles.

Yvonne is survived by her son, Javon McKinney; one brother, Jerome McKinney, Sr.; one sister, Linda Gland; two granddaughters, Averi McKinney and Aubrie Wilson; special cousin/sister, Debbie Burke; nieces and nephews, Elder Rakeem Hicks, Shermar Hicks, Sr., Jerome McKinney, Jr., Brandon “Bam Bam” Corbett, and Nyderah Corbett; one great-niece and one great-nephew, Skai Hicks, and Shemar Hicks, Jr. and a host of cousins and friends.
