

Zaidee N. King

February 18, 2008

Zaidee Nichols King was born on September 4, 1913 in Oil City, PA, the daughter of Roy Nichols and Margaret Touhey. She was raised in Glyndon and Reisterstown. In 1931, she graduated from Forest Park High School in Baltimore, MD. Mrs. King married Howard J. King, Jr of Baltimore, MD on April 13, 1936. She raised her family in the Middle River area of Baltimore County. Her husband predeceased her in 1991. Mrs. King did extensive volunteer work for many years at Franklin Square Hospital in Rossville and Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Essex, MD. She was a generous and loving mother and grandmother, and had the opportunity to enjoy her great-grandchildren late in her life.

Zaidee King is survived by her daughter, Cynthia Justice and her husband Mitchell of Newark, DE; her son, Howard Jay King and his wife Gladys of Queenstown, MD; 3 grandchildren, Tiffany Liston of Leesburg, VA, E. Larry Grine of Reston, VA, and David King of Queenstown, MD; 5 great grandchildren, Noelle and Nathan Liston, Aiden Grine, and Taylor and Piper King. She also leaves nephews Richard Nichols of Abington, MD and David Nichols of Milledgeville GA, niece Penny Watts of Baltimore, and their families. Her brothers, Richard, Paul, William, and David Nichols predecease her.

A memorial service will be held at a later date at the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Essex, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Zaidee N. King

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Zaidee N. King

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Zaidee N. King

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM